

Paper Title: Landslide risk management

Author(s): R. Fell & D. Harford

Abstract:

A framework for landslide risk management for landslides and slopes is presented. A review of criteria for acceptable individual and societal risk is presented, and suggestions made for acceptable risk criteria for landsliding. Examples are given of the framework for landslide risk management for natural and man-made slopes and for landslides affecting dam reservoirs. Matters requiring discussion and further research are described.